Mike Addeo Joins Evercore as Senior Managing Director in Private Capital Advisory

NEW YORK, June 4, 2025 – Evercore announced today that Mike Addeo has joined the firm as a senior managing director in its Private Capital Advisory (PCA) group, based in New York.

“We are delighted to welcome Mike to Evercore,” said Nigel Dawn, global head of Evercore’s PCA group. “Mike brings deep experience across private credit, a strong track record in structuring complex transactions, and a trusted network of institutional relationships. His expertise will further strengthen our capabilities in private credit secondaries, a market where we continue to see significant opportunity.”

“I’m excited to join Evercore’s PCA team, which is widely regarded as the leader in private capital advisory,” said Mike Addeo. “I look forward to working with clients to navigate the increasingly sophisticated secondary market, particularly within private credit, where demand for flexible liquidity solutions continues to grow.”

Mr. Addeo joins Evercore with 15 years of credit investing experience. Most recently, he was a managing director and head of restructuring at Blackstone Credit & Insurance. In this role, he led the firm’s restructuring and liability management efforts, including recapitalizations of existing investments and sourcing new opportunities in complex public and private credit situations. Previously, Mr. Addeo was a vice president in equity research at Wolfe Research, covering the transportation sector. He began his career in Deutsche Bank’s private wealth management group.

Mr. Addeo earned a Bachelor of Science in business administration from Georgetown University’s McDonough School of Business. He is also a CFA charterholder.
