Ovadia Jacob Joins Evercore as Senior Managing Director in the Private Capital Markets Group

NEW YORK, October 20, 2025 – Evercore announced today that Ovadia Jacob has joined the firm as a senior managing director in the private capital markets and debt advisory group, focused on ratings advisory. He will be based in New York.

“We are excited to welcome Ovadia to Evercore,” said Dan Mendelow, co-head of Evercore’s U.S. investment banking business. “His strong background in ratings advisory will further strengthen and broaden our capital markets advisory and placement capabilities while enhancing the strategic guidance we provide to clients.”

Mr. Jacob said, “I’m delighted to join this storied franchise during its time of incredible and dynamic growth. I’m excited to be part of a great team working toward shared success.”

Mr. Jacob joins Evercore with over 15 years of experience as a trusted advisor on marquee transactions across technology, media and telecom; insurance; banks; asset management; industrials; healthcare; and real estate. He has helped clients navigate their most important transactions, including M&A, take-privates, spins, dispositions, and public and private debut and follow-on debt and equity financings. Most recently, he was a managing director at Goldman Sachs. Previously, he was an associate director at Standard & Poor’s with responsibility for rating a portfolio of North American life insurance companies. Mr. Jacob holds a B.S. from Yeshiva University and an MBA from New York University’s Stern School of Business.
