Hans Vestberg Joins Evercore as Senior Advisor

NEW YORK, October 5, 2026 – Evercore announced today that Hans Vestberg has joined the firm as a senior advisor, based in New York.

“Hans is an exceptional leader who brings decades of experience leading global telecommunications and technology companies,” said John Weinberg, Chairman and CEO of Evercore. “His deep understanding of technology and global markets, combined with his perspective on complex strategic issues, will further strengthen the advice and insight we provide to our clients.”

Mr. Vestberg said, “Evercore has built a distinguished reputation for providing independent, senior-level advice to clients on their most important strategic and financial decisions. I am excited to join the firm at a time of significant change across technology and global business and look forward to contributing my experience and perspective to Evercore’s collaborative, client-focused culture.”

Mr. Vestberg joins Evercore following nearly a decade at Verizon, where he served as chairman and chief executive officer until October 2025. Prior to Verizon, Mr. Vestberg spent more than 20 years at Ericsson, where he served as president and chief executive officer and previously as chief financial officer.
